LIST OF NGOS IN GENEVA

Non-governmental organizations (NGOs) may engage with the United Nations through consultative status with the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) or association with the Department of Public Information (DPI). on ECOSOC Resolution 1996/31 that sets out the arrangements for consultation with NGOs. An online database of NGOs in consultative status with ECOSOC is searchable by country, area of work and other parameters – start at <http://esango.un.org/civilsociety/>.

Over 750 NGOs in consultative status with ECOSOC from all over the world were accredited to the United Nations Office at Geneva in 2015. Over 400 of those NGOs have a presence (HQ, office or representative) in the Geneva area.

Located within the Office of the Director-General, the NGO Liaison Unit is the focal point for matters relating to relations between the United Nations and NGOs. The Office maintains liaison with NGOs in consultative status with ECOSOC and facilitates their participation in United Nations activities.
